

How could we be saving water?

Think of three places where water is used and how it could be used more carefully.

Place where water is used	Ways water may be wasted in this place	Ways we could save water in this place